MY LOVE IS LIKE A VCR

I insert the care, the patience and the commitment
I press Reset to begin with and develop a friendship and a strong bonding
I set the Clock so that our memories can be timeless
I press Play to enjoy every moment I am with you
I press Pause to listen to your concerns, your deepest fears and your passions
I press Forward to give you unconditional support
I press Reverse to always remember your smiling face and our cherished moments
I press Pause to hear and enjoy with you, your excitements and achievements
I press Play to hold you close and squeeze you tight
I adjust the Tracking to settle our differences with mutual trust and understanding
I press Slow to see your loveliness and beauty
I press Fast Forward to hold your hands and look deeply into your eyes
I press Record to express with all my heart the love I have for you
I set the Timer to release the passions I feel for you
I press Stop – but I can never stop loving you.

CAN I GET A RISE?

Looking at the face Tingles.
Caressing the body Excites.
Kissing the neck Stimulates.
Stroking Pulsates.
Licking Vibrates.
Rubbing Erects.
Can I get a rise?
Yes, I think I just did!

Echo-Ing

I echo my thoughts
I echo my dreams
Of the loveliest black lady
I've ever seen.

Sweet of chocolate
Pure as the night
Strong and independent
A powerful sight.

I echo my thoughts
I echo my dreams
Of the loveliest latina
I've ever seen.

Sweet of brown sugar
Pure as the day
Powerful and courageous
They always have their way.

I echo my thoughts
I echo my dreams
Of the loveliest people
I've ever seen.

CARIBBEAN BEAUTY

I know a Caribbean Beauty
From New York City
To a little island.

I know a Caribbean Beauty
She is wonderful to know
And beautiful at the beach.

I know a Caribbean Beauty
She tans and peels
And no one does it better.

I know a Caribbean Beauty
She is caring and forgiving
No wonder I love her so.

I know a Caribbean Beauty
She is a dream when I'm a sleep
She is a dream when I'm awake.

I know a Caribbean Beauty
She is fearless of all attacks
No creatures great or small scares her.

I know a Caribbean Beauty
She can be modest
But her body is gorgeous.

I know a Caribbean Beauty
She is without doubt
The love of my life.

BEAUTY ON THE BEACH

She's on the beach
And she's a beauty.
Dressed in a two-piece
Or a one-piece
She's a beauty all the same.

Her curved body
Outshines the sun.
Her sexy poses
Embraces the sand.
Her smooth skin
Parts the water.
She is the looker on the beach.
She's a jaw-dropper, weak-in-the-knees,
Can't think of anything else beauty.

Oh look at her walk!
Oh look at her wade in the water!
Oh look at her swim!
Oh look at her laying on the sand!

She's a beauty.
A beauty on the beach.

YOUR WONDERFUL SMILES

The best part of you
Is your wonderful smiles.
They light up a room
They light up the sky
They light up my life.

The first thing I see on you
Is your wonderful smiles.
They show off your charm
They show off your warmth
They show off your sweetness.

A very unique feature
Is your wonderful smiles.
It makes everyone happy
It makes all glad
But best of all
It makes me smile.

FEELINGS

I fall in love really fast
But then I stop to think
If it's gonna last.

Because I've been heart broken
And put into a cast.

Now I've found you
And my heart is not broken
I hope it stays melted and that
You're not pretending.

I hope with all my might
That you're really the one that's right
And that the relationship between us two
Was meant to be and not out of the blue.

For the simple reason
I Love You.

WHAT I WANT TO BE

Don't be fooled by the title
This has nothing to do about growing up
This has nothing to do with a career
This is a self-examination.

Do you ever sit
And examine yourself?
Not only who you are
But what you want to be.

Ask yourself about yourself
You may be surprised.
Everything you want may be there
Just waiting for you to find.

I sit and examine myself
And this is what I find
I am patient and willing to help
Caring and capable of taking risks
Intelligent and little bit silly
Sensitive and nonjudgmental
Sometimes funny yet all times serious.

My kindness is not a weakness
But a strength to help me survive.

I am a dreamer, a hopeless romantic
Not much a talker, but always a listener.

I want to be able to share my dreams and thoughts.
I want to be able to exhibit my feelings and show my support.
I want to be able to disagree, compromise and sacrifice.
I want to be able to enjoy life, no matter what I do.
I want to be able to see, feel, hear, touch and taste.
I want to be able to have butterflies in my stomach.
I want to be able to feel passion when I kiss.
I want to be able to feel warmth when I hug.

I want to be with one true love.
I want to be with one real partner.
I want to be with one everlasting soul mate.

What do I want to be?
On self-examination
It's very simple
I want to be happy.

GRACIOUS GIFT

The most gracious gift
Is as fine as can be
She is devastatingly beautiful
And stunning to see.

Her soft silky skin
Is smooth to the touch
And her large brown eyes
You can only love so much.

She has a round face
And a smile that sparkles
And just looking at her
Can always make you tingle.

Her hair can be straight or curly
Braided or kinky
But no matter it's style
It's always smells pretty.

It's a pleasure to hear her sweet voice
And hold her tender hands
For you can feel her courage and strength
Throughout all lands.

She is sexy and gorgeous
And her presence entice
God's Gracious Gift
Is the one named JA-NICE.

THE RED PANTIES

They come at you
In the dark of night
Those red sexy undergarments.
Hellish at first
Then a pleasure to the sight.
The devil is in them
No doubt
As they wait silently
For the attack.
Rest easy and they will come
Fall asleep and they will come
Those panties take no prisoners.
They entice, entwine
Turning your brain to mush.
Beware and be warned
No smelling, no touching
Just look
On second thought...
Look at who's wearing them
That might be worth something
But look out
If they are alone
You're in trouble!
Those red panties
Will get you every time.

IN A WOMAN

What's to see in a woman...?

Big brown eyes

To melt my heart,

A wide bright smile

To light up my days and nights,

A beautiful smooth neck

To entice and excite me,

Soft delicate hands

For me to hold and squeeze,

Powerful thighs and legs

For me to see and rub.

What's inside a woman...?

Strength,

Independence,

Sensitivity,

Caring,

Passion.

The sights to behold in a woman

The mixture of characteristics of a woman

It's all there for me

That's in a woman.
