Notes for Charles Ruttan

BIOGRAPHY: "DEATH AT SYDENHAM Of Charles Ruttan on November 21st Aged Eighty-one. Born at Sydenham, where he resided all his life, Charles Ruttan died at his home, on Thursday, Nov, 21st. He was eighty-one years of age and his illness had been for some month's duration. The deceased old gentleman had been one of the prominent residents of the county and had taken an active interest in its affairs up to a few years of his death. He was a member and reeve of the township of Loughboro council for a number of years, but retire a couple of years ago. He also represented Loughboro in the county council for about thrity-five years, serving on the important committees. The deceased was a liberal in politics, having held the office of clerk in the third division court for thirthy-five years, and a subscriber of the Whig all his life. He was a Methodist in religion, and the funeral was conducted by Rev. Mr. Tripp to Sydenham cemetery last Sunday. He is survived by his widow, who was Miss A Purdy, of the Bath Road, the couple having celebrated their fiftieth anniversary four years ago. Four children also remain: Dr. F. S. Ruttan, Woodstock; E. BIOGRAPHY: "In the fall of 1868, Gil enrolled at Albert College in Belleville. Each summer he was active in administration relating to the camp meetings held on the southern part of the Ruttan farm. In the spring of 1870, he participated in the construction of a church at "The Corners." and two years later, when Sunday school was started, he was the first librarian and secretary. After the marriage of Gil and Mary (Minn), "life was no bed of roses" and one morning in May 1879, Minn went home to mother. After more than six years, a reconciliation was effected and Gil drove to the Abbott home and took his wife back to their home. He was an astute businessman and active in local enterprises, was president of the Wooler Cheese Manufacturing Company for six years and a director for more. In 1899 he bought the Wooler House. In October 1901, he was sworn in as Justice of the Peace. After the death of his father-in-law, John P. Abbott, In october 1893, he took more and more responsibility for the Abbott farm and in October 1904, he moved there with his family and gradually turned the home farm over to their son Charles (Willie)." Notes for Christopher Ruttan

DEATH: Funeral: At the Berg-Schwartz Funeral Home in Alden, Michigan. The funeral sermon was delivered by Reverend Charles Dunbar.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: "The gentleman whose career is briefly outlined in the following paragraphs is one of the leading farmers of Clearwater township, Kalkaska county, Michigan. He was born in Canada on the 17th of January, 1867, and is the son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Walker) Ruttan, the father a native of Canada and the mother of Ireland, the latter's death occurring in Sanilac county, Michigan. The father came to Kalkaska county in April, 1885, and settled in Clearwater township, where he has since made his home. Six children were born to that union, the subject of this sketch being the third born. The latter was but an infant when his parents removed to Sanilac county, Michigan, and he remained there until he was fifteen years old, in the meantime receiving advantage of attendance at common schools. In 1885 he came to Kalkaska county and has been a resident of Clearwater township since that time. He has always followed agricultural pursuits and is now the owner of a fine farm of one hundred and sixty acres, of which about eighty acres are in cultivation. Mr. ruttan has been a close reader and thinker and gives careful and thoughtful attention to agriculture, as he doed to every enterprise to which he has ever applied himself, the result being satisfactory return for his labor. His farm buildings are all good, and his work is reduced to a minimum through the agency of improved and modern methods of agriculture. His farming operations are diversified in their character, propert attention being given to the particular crops for which certain soils and other conditions are adapted. In Clearwater township, this county, on September 21, 1892, Mr. Ruttan was united in marriage to Miss Minnie J. Dundas, the daughter of Seth and Jane Dundas, a sketch of whom appears elsewhere in this volume. Mrs. Ruttan was born in this township on June 11, 1874. To this union have been born the following children: Elizabeth Jane, Edith B., Ward W., Jessie M., George C., and Emerson J. In the true sense of the term Mr. Ruttan is a typical western man and a splendid example of the sturdy class which he so well represents. He stands for progress and modern ideas, keeps in close touch with the times, and his hospitality is as proverbial as his good nature, all who come within the range of his influence bearing willing testimony to his standing as a citizen. ("Biographical History of Northern Michigan" B.F. Bower and Co. 1905 p.518).

Sanilac County when my father was two years old. In the early 1880s my grandfather homestead in south Dakota. He came back to Michigan and settled in Kalkaska County in the late eighties. Here they bought a farm in Section 12 of Clear Water Township. When grandfather gave up the farm father bought it and lived there the rest of his life. He was seventeen years old when he came here and died at the age of 89. He married Minnie Dundas in 1892. They raised 8 children. I, was the third child, born in 1896. I went to school until I was seventeen and then quit to help with the work on the farm. In 1911 I bought a farm near my parents farm in Rapid River Township. In 1921 I moved into it and started cleaning it up and farming it. Farm prices were not very good in those years so you did not get ahead very fast. In 1923 I was united in marriage to Marjorie Ann Chaney who taught at the Lannin school. We lived on the farm. We worked hard raising potatoes as a cash crop. We also had cows, chickens, pigs and horses. In 1928, things looked bad on the farm and wages were good around Detroit. We sold all our personal farm stock and implements and left for Detroit. I got a job on the Detroit Edison "pole gang" for a year and then hard time struck. Then all of us, except one child, had a siege of sickness. They were laying off men and shortening the work week. I was next in line to be laid off so in May of 1930 I quit. We came back to the farm and we were glad to get back. We had to go in debt for the stock and tools to get going again. The barn on the place would not hold enough hay. Feeding hay from the hay stack was not good for the cattle and horses. We lost several head from the poisonous dust that was in the stacked hay in the spring.* In 1934 we decided to build a new barn which set us back over $500. But by 1940 we began to hit better times. We got on our feet again and kept on farming. There were some shady dealings in our township government in 1930 and 1931. I ran for township clerk and Russell Wood ran for treasurer. We both won. I held the clerk's office until 1947. It did not pay much but every bit of money you could get looked big in the 1930s. After the war the boys were gone and I had to be home at chore time. I could not attend meetings after supper as we had quit raising potatoes and changed over to keeping more cows and selling milk. When the cream check started bouncing we shifted to selling whole milk to the Mancelonia Cheese Company. The price was not quite as good but the check was good. In 1949 I was appointed to fill a vacancy on the county road commission. I was elected to a six year term in 1955. In 1962 I retired from the road commissioners job. It was quite interesting at times and very disgusting at other times. We put the farm in the soil bank in 1960. In 1969 we sold our farm (see Auction Sale Bill). We bought a new home in the village of Kalkaska. We sold the farm (the Roberts', Coon, and Ransom Places) for $22,000. We sold the farm to Donald Douglas. He had trouble making his payments until he sold the Roberts' place for $27,000 and the Coon place for $15,000 in 1974." NOTES: *The spring the new barn
