

was being built one of the horses died. Ward bought two new horses for $400. About a month later one died. His father lent Ward one of his horses. The horse that lived, Queen, had several colts - Lady and Lad; Dan and Fan. By the late 1930s Ward was farming with four horses. He bought a tractor in 1944. I drove it home from the dealer in Alba when I was on home leave from the Army in the Spring of 1944. After he bought the tractor, Ward kept Dan around as a pet. He used Dan to help put up his fuel wood in the winter. In the 1950s our children, Lia and Chris, used to ride Dan when we went to the farm on vacations. Dan was getting pretty slow by that time. I remember one year my father's campaign literature, which he sent out to voters on a postcard, indicated that "I will do the best that I can but it will not be possible for me to accomplish all that my opponent has promised." Beverly recalls that she voted, by absentee ballot, for Ward for County Road Commissioner the first time she voted. She was teaching in Saginaw at the time." (V. W. Ruttan, 1991 pp.45-6).

Notes for Samuel Maitland Ruttan

OBITUARY: "(He)...was born in Tyendinaga, and converted in Prince Edward County under the ministry of Rev. F. B. Stratton, in 1870. Since that time he remained an earnest christian, full of Godly zeal, and always rejoicing in hope. For a few years past he has lived in the Township of Sombra (Lambton Co.) Never a strong man, the endeavours he put forth to make a home for his family in the bush, told heavily upon him. He was one of the pilliars of the Otterville appointment, South dawson Mission, and at his death the church experienced a great loss. He died rather suddenly in the night of November 16,

Notes for Henry Norlande Ruttan

BIOGRAPHY: "Henry attended grammar school in Cornwall and Cobourg. In 1868, he entered the Chief Engineers Department of the Grand Trunk Railway, and the following year transferred to the Dominion Government Service under Sir Sandford Fleming where he had charge of location on the Baie de Chaleur section of the Intercolonial Railway. In 1874, he transferred to the Canadian Pacific Railway and for two years took charge of the location party between the Rocky Mountains and Edmonton. He was engaged in other railroad work and practised his profession in Winnipeg from 1880 to 1885 when he was appointed the first City Engineer of Winnipeg, which post he held until he retired in 1914. Later, his services as consulting engineer were retained. On his retirement, he was given a banquet at which the Mayor, and members of the City Council, and City Hall staff were present, and he was presented with a costly silver service. His military career commenced when he joined the volunteer militia as Private in the 40th Battalion, Cobourg Rifles. In 1886, he had been stationed at Thorold during the Fenian Raid and received the Canada General Service Medal and Clasp. He attended and graduated from the School of Military Instruction at Kingston and was granted his Certificate. His took his discharge from Cobourg Rifles at Winnipeg, November 9th, 1883, he was gazetted Captain No. 2 Company. He went with his regiment to the riel rebellion (1885) and took part in the battles of Fish Creek, where his horse was shot from under him, at Batoche, and sawaction against Chief Big Bear's band. He was mentioned in dispatches and received the North West Canada Medal and Clasp. General Middleton characterized him at the time as "one of the most able and energetic of my officers." He was promoted to Major in 1887 and to the Command of his regiment. In 1889, he was appointed G.O.C. Military District Number 10 (Winnipeg) and in the following year was transferred to the Reserve of Officers. He returned to active service 1n 1910 upon the organization of the 100th Regiment, Winnipeg Grenadiers. He was partly instrumental in raising this regiment, and was gazetted to its command April 1, 1910, and at the same time promoted to Brigadier-General in command of the 20th Brigade, and in this post at the outbreak of the Great War, in August 1914, he relinquished his professional and official duties to devote himself entirely to war service. He was immediately appointed to Command of Military District No. 10. He had hoped to take his command overseas, but this was denied him on account of his age. He was detailed to sewell Camp and took charge of training and recruiting until his retirement in 1918. His temporary rank of Brigadier-General was confirmed, and also, in recognition of his services, he was created a Companion of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George. In addition he held the Colonial Auxiliary Forces Long Service Medal. He was admitted a member of the Canadian Society of Civil Engineers in 1887 and sat as amember of the Council of that body from 1894 to 1897. In 1888, he was elected a member of the Institute of Civil Engineers of London, England, and in 1893, to a membership in the American Society of Civil Engineers. He was chairman of the Winnipeg branch of the Canadian Society of Civil engineers in 1908, becoming Vice-President of that organization in 1909 and President in 1910. In the same year, he was elected President of the Engineering Institute of Canada. Three of his sons served in branches of the Canadian Army during the Great War, 1914-1919." (H. N. Ruttan, 1986 p.69-70).

CHILDREN: "Thre of thei children died in infancy and there were six other offspring." (Ruttan, 1986 p.70).

Children of Henry Norlande¹⁰ Ruttan and Andrina Barberie were as follows:

- 1021 i Edith¹¹ Ruttan, born 4 Jul 1874 in Cobourg, Northumberland, Ontario; died 1890 in Ontario.
- 1022 ii Mary Louise¹¹ Ruttan, born 10 Oct 1877 in Winnipeg, Manitoba; died 25 Apr 1970 in Oakville, Ontario.
- 1023 iii Henry Andrew¹¹ Ruttan, born 19 Feb 1881 in Winnipeg, Manitoba; died 1958 in Port Arthur, Thunder Bay, Ontario. BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: "Henry attended public school at St. John's Colege in Winnipeg where after graduating he joined the Canadian Bank of Commerce. Later he was transferred to a branch in Toronto. In 1905, he joined the firm of Ruttan Estates Limited in Port Arthur to work with his uncle Robert A. Ruttan who had succeeded his brother James Farrand Ruttan founder of the firm, who had died in 1904. On the death of Robert A. in 1912, another uncle, Walter Shanley Ruttan became president of the company and held that position until his death in 1948. From that time, Henry Andrew was President of the company and managed its affairs until his death. As a young man in Winnipeg, Henry Andrew served with the 90th Regiment, Winnipeg Rifles. At the outbreak of the Great War, 1914-1919, he volunteered and served for a time in Canada. On December 7, 1915, he was appointed to Commissioned Rank in the 94th Battalion, Canadian Expeditionary Force. He served in Canada, England, and France with the 94th, the 32nd, and the 15th Reserve, the 4th Entrenching and the 50th Battalions, General List and Alberta Regimental Depot. He was struck off strenth on October 11, 1917, by reason of being medically unfit and was reappointed in the 1st Depot Battalion, Manitoba Regiment serving also with District Depot #10. Later he was appointed to command the Lake Superior Regiment with the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, which was confirmed at the time of his retirement. He received the 1914-1918 War Medal, the Voctory Medal, and the Colonial Auxiliary Forces Long Service Medal." (H. N. Ruttan, 1986 p.105).
- 1024 iv Charles Millidge¹¹ Ruttan, born 24 May 1883 of Winnipeg, Manitoba; died 20 Jan 1970 in Toronto, Ontario; buried in Mt. Pleasant Cem, Toronto, Ontario. BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: "Charles received his education at the public schools and the Collegiate Institute in Winnipeg. He was active in sports, and in his youth he was a member of the Choir of All Saints' Church Winnipeg. In 1903, he joined the Commissioners' Office of the Hudson's Bay Company in Winnipeg. In 1907, he formed a partnership with Hamilton B. Chipman, known as Ruttan and Chipman, acting as commission brokers. Business operations were interrupted by the outbreak of the Great War, 1914-1919. After the war ended, he resumed business as a manufacturer's agent in Winnipeg. As part of this venture he undertook to represent the Drimilk Company Ltd., a subsidiary of the City Dairy Company Ltd. of Toronto, in western Canada. This representation prospered and in 1929 he was asked to move to Toronto as Manager of Drimilk Company Ltd. and Assistant to the President of City Dairy Company Ltd. He and his family made the move in 1929, taking up residence in Forest Hill Village. Later he became General Manager and, in August 1930, President of City Dairy. On the sale of City Dairy to Borden's Ltd., he became Vice-President of that company. The outbreak of World War II in 1939 again interrupted his civilian life. His military career began at an early age. After serving six years in the ranks of the 90th regiment Winnipeg Rifles, and upon formation in 1907 of the first Army Service Corps Unit in western Canada - No. 11 Company, Winnipeg - he received a Commission as Lieutenant in the Unit. In August 1914, as Captain, he commanded the three officers and fifty men from No. 11 Company, which formed part of the 1st Canadian Divisional Train at Valcartier Camp near Quebec City. In command of the Supply details in No. 4 Company, he proceeded overseas and served in France and Belgium as Supply Officer, 3rd Brigade, 1st Canadian Division. He was appointed Chief Instructor of the Army Service Corps Training Centre, Shorncliffe, England, and shortly after assumed command as Lieutenant-Colonel. His wife, Frances, had journeyed to England in March 1916, accompanied by their three eldest children, and kept house in various locations including Ealing until the end of the war when she came home with four children to await her husband's return. At Shorncliffe, his capabilities had been soon appreciated and were rewarded by rapidly succeeding appointments to Assistant Director of Supplies and Transport, Shorncliffe; Deputy Director of Supplies and Transport, and Assistant Quartermaster-General, Canadian Headquarters, London. In recognition of his services, he was appointed a Commander of the Military Division of the Order of the British Empire. He was mentioned in despatches. He received the 1914-1915 Star, the British War Medal, and the Victory Medal. On his return to Canada, he withdrew from military affairs but in 1928 the 10th Divisional Train, Winnipeg, required reorganizing and he responded to the call. His move to Toronto in 1929, however, ended this service. On the outbreak of World War II, he again offered his services and in February 1941 was recommended to be Commander, 1st Canadian Armoured Divisional Royal Army Service Corps. Due to his age, he was not permitted to take the Unit overseas and in May 1941, he was appointed to command the R.C.A.S.C. Training Centre (A-19) at Camp Borden, Ontario.

He had studied training conditions in England in 1942 with a view to better coordination of training. He relinquished the command of A-19 on the 30th of August 1943 because of the Canadian Army 60-year age limit, being retired with the rank of Colonel. For these services he received the Canadian Volunteer Service Medal and Clasp and the War Medal 1939-45. He had previously received the Colonial Auxiliary Forces Officers Decoration and the Long Service Medal. At the time of his retirement, it was said: "Probably no officer was more highly regarded by his junior officers than Colonel Ruttan. Extremley kind and sympathetic to all their problems - and junior officers have many - yet he was a strict disciplinarian. One quiet word from him had more effect than the more usual disciplinary lacing." In February 1944, he was appointed Bread and Bakery Administrator of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board until his work was completed in 1947. He returned then to the business world as a manufacturer's agent, running his own agency until his death on January 20, 1970. Charles and his family attended Grace Church-on-the-Hill where he was both People's and Rector's Warden. He was active in the National Club, the Granite Club, York Downs Golf and Country Club, the Big Brothers, the Board of Trade, and the Toronto Convention and Visitors Association, and he was a Life Member of C.A.S.C. Vetrans Association, C.E.F. Inc. His wife, Frances, had died on January 13, 1958, and their two daughters had also predeceased him. Elizabeth was buried in St. James Cemetery, Winnipeg, while he, his wife, and their daughter Helen are buried in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Toronto. Their tree sons served during World Warr II in the Canadian Army and the youngest served also in the Roayl Canadian Air Force." (H. N. Ruttan, 1986 pp.105-6).

1026 vi John Douglas¹¹ Ruttan, born 5 Apr 1889 in Winnipeg, Manitoba; died 7 Jan 1973 in Winnipeg, Manitoba; buried in St. John's Cem., Winnipeg, Manitoba. BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: "He received his education at Winnipeg Collegiate, St. John's College, and the University of Manitoba. He played hockey in his youth, ending his playing years with the Winnipegs when they won the Allan Cup in 1913. In recognition of his abilities, he was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto in 1965. He was a member of the Fort Garry Horse of Winnipeg but was ill when the Regiment went overseas in 1914 so he was not able to go with them. In 1915, he went with an Engineering Battalion from British Columbia and after a few months in France was invalided home in 1916; he was an instructor in field engineering until the end of the War in 1918. He joined

Notes for Robert Anderson Ruttan

OCCUPATION: "Robert worked in various area in western Canada. He was at one time Immigration Agent in Edmonton. In the early 1890's, he was Assistant Secretary to the Land Board in Winnipeg and in 1895, was appointed Crown Timber Agent in Edmonton, a position he held until 1900. He and his family moved to Port Arthur and he joined his brother James in the Real Estate and Insuranace business; he took over in 1904 when James died. He was prominent in the eyes of the public for many years and served as City Alderman in 1910 and 1911. It was due to his foresight that the Ruttan Building, which is still in use in Thunder Bay, was constructed in 1910." (H. N. Ruttan, 1986 p.71).

MARRIAGE: Married by Reverend Alex Williams at St. John's Evangelist, Toronto.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH: "Robert Anderson Ruttan, engaged in the real estate business in Port Arthur, was born in Cobourg, Ontario, April 16, 1855. His parents, Henry Jones and Margaret (Pringle) Ruttan, were natives of Canada and the father's people were United Empire Loyalists who followed the British flag into Canada, settling in Northumberland early in the nineteenth century. Henry J. Ruttan was for many years editor and proprietor of the Cobourg Star and one of the early residents of that city. At the usual age Robert A. Ruttan entered the public schools and afterward continued his studies in the Collegiate Institute of Cobourg, but considered his education completed at the age of sixteen years and entered business life in connection with newspaper work, which he followed in Cobourg and in Ottawa for about three years. He was then appointed private secretary to George Laidlaw, with whom he remained for eight years, and in 1881 he went to Winnipeg as private secretary to Hon. John Norquay. After a short period he turned his attention to the real estate business in Winnipeg in partnership with his brother, J. F. Ruttan, now deceased. In December, 1881, they opened an office in Port Arthur which Robert A. Ruttan now conducts. He was afterward, however, appointed secretary of the Dominion lands commission and occupied that position for about seventeen years, being stationed for eleven years in Winnipeg and for six years in Edmonton, Alberta. In 1904 he made a permanent location in Port Arthur, where he is now conducting a real estate office, having a liberal clientage, whereby he has been connected with many important realty transfers in this locality. In addition to his other interests he is a director in the Vigers Shear Lumber Company. Interested in all that pertains to the business development of Port Arthur and its consequent growth and upbuilding, he is affiliated with the Board of Trade and is now chairman of the industrial and transportation committee, in which connection he is doing effective labor for the promotion of trade and commercial interests. Mr. Ruttan was married in 1882 to Miss Nenon Armstrong, a daughter of William Armstrong, the well-known artist of Toronto, and they have four children. In politics Mr. Ruttan is a Conservative and his interest in the political questions and issues of the day leads to his active and effective service for his party. At the present writing he is a member of the executive council of the Conservative Association. His religious adherence is the Church of England and he is a member of the Masonic fraternity, which finds in him a worthy exemplar of the craft. He is also associated socially with the Manitoba Club of Winnipeg and the Port Arthur Club." ("History of Ontario", p. 1214-5).
