A TOUCH OF HOME: THE VIETNAM WAR'S RED CROSS GIRLS

- You're Invited!
- Film Premiere Event
- DVD Available Beginning Veterans Day
- Remarkable Women...Remarkable Story

They came of age at the dawn of the women's movement, stepping out of conventional roles to take a route away from the expected. Young, adventurous, idealistic, and committed, they were a breath of fresh air in the dusty firebases and sweaty base camps of Vietnam. They were the Donut Dollies, and their job was to distract US soldiers on the front lines with games, songs and a listening ear. With a never- ending smile, a listening ear, and a collection of silly games, they delivered a touch of home to the combat zone.

Arrowhead Films is proud to announce the Veterans Day 2008 World Premiere and DVD release of... A Touch of Home: The Vietnam War's Red Cross Girls.

Remarkable Women...Remarkable Story

We heard about the Donut Dollies through the Huey pilots who flew them, way back in 2001 when we were doing research for a documentary about a Huey's journey across America. When that journey finally lifted off years later, we met Red Cross Girls at Landing Zones around the nation. Intrigued by their story from the beginning, we soon grew enthralled with the women themselves. Spunky, vivacious, gutsy, funny, proud, and smart to a woman, the Vietnam Donut Dollies speak of their time at war with a sense of pride familiar to any soldier, marine, airman or sailor.

They were Kennedy kids "with a thirst for adventure and a desire to do something real." Their experience in Vietnam has affected each of them differently, but affected them all. This documentary captures their look back at war in their own words, with a rich collection of photos and home movies they took of the firebases and landing zones and base camps where they served.

You'll laugh, you'll cry, and you'll hear the story of your war from a woman's perspective in way you've never heard it told before. Please join us in meeting "the most remarkable women you'll ever meet" -- The Vietnam War's Red Cross Girls!
