

cpent.bas

Description: This program modifies the "copy parallel keyin" command so that each element copied is offset by a user defined distance in the Z direction.

Instructions: Before using this command, run the "copy parallel keyin" command to set the horizontal offset. After that keyin "macro cpent [dist]" where dist is the vertical distance. If you omit distance the program will prompt you for it.

Written by tshoemaker@yahoo.com, see program source code for details.